

Projet déclic !

The Church today needs well-trained people to edify the body of Christ (Eph. 4.11-16). Several difficulties lie in the path of potential workers, in particular the need to finance their training.

It is also hard for small churches with few resources to encourage one of their members to train for service. No young person who wants to serve God should be deprived of adequate training. No church either, however small it may be, should have to miss the joy of encouraging one of its members to get the education he needs.

« Project Déclic ! » desires to accompany all those who want to become Christian workers as well as those who desire to send them into God's harvest field.

General Need in France

The map at left, while it is approximate, shows the needs for evangelization in France. The statistics are based on the population of each department and the number of known evangelicals.

The map show low probability for an unbeliever to find a church. In light of this we can conclude that France is still a mission field.

We are far from the revival movements that several countries knew, particularly in the 19th century. More than ever our contemporaries need to receive the Good News. As a result, our churches need to shoulder their responsibility and spread the beautiful message of the Gospel.

Short-Term Objectives

The members of AMEBI desire to see their work develop by :

- ✓ Better informing French evangelical churches.
- ✓ Wider opening to European evangelical Baptist churches.
- ✓ Better coordinating the efforts of Bible institutes and candidates to meet the needs in France.
- ✓ Developing our communication tools, particularly in relation to those who pray for and donate to the mission.

Long-Term Objectives

Our Lord has left us with the mission « Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. » (Mark 16.15).

L'AMEBI desires to encourage and help churches grasp that vision and work at fulfilling it so that men, women and children everywhere might hear the gospel and become disciples of Jesus-Christ.
